

Highland Station Gallery ~ Featuring Mayor Pamela Hoots ~ Quilt Collection

About the Collector:

- Current Mayor of Columbia, KY
- Graduate of Liberty University (Business Administration)
- Undergraduate Somerset Community College (Communications)
- Elected to mayor's office with around 60% of the vote
- First female to hold the post
- Initiated in-service education programs, crime watches, drug awareness programs and activities, neighborhood watches, and other active measures which resulted in the city receiving an award from the Kentucky League of Cities for its processes in assisting to achieve lowest crime rate in history
- Developed proactive measures to help the city achieve one of the lowest unemployment rates in its history
- Implemented DARE drug-free programs in elementary and high schools which resulted in the city achieving the lowest crime rate in its history
- Developed extensive hands-on experience in governmental procedures, grant writing, and in delivering and administering public services